culturED students

Twenty-Five students from Gymnasium Heepen in Bielefeld, Germany visited Southern High School for two weeks in October. During their visit, students attended classes, celebrated Autumn Glory, and traveled to Washington D.C. At the end of the school year, twenty-five Southern students traveled to Germany to stay with their German host family for two weeks.

This year Southern had the privilege of hosting two foreign exchange students, Ozge Yuzgec from Turkey and Akira Toyoda from Japan for a full year. Ozge and Akira spent one year experiencing the American culture. Both Akira and Ozge agreed living in the United States is very different from their home countries. Ozge wants everyone to send her peanut butter when she returns home because they do not have it in Turkey. Akira is shocked that American high school students get to drive before they are 18. In Japan, students ride bikes to school.

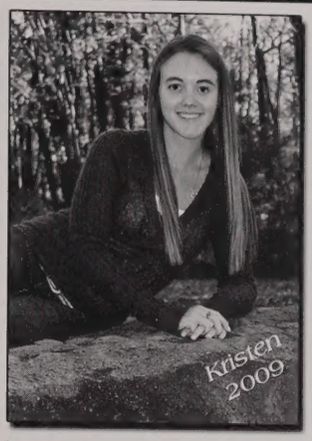
Many think the community is just a place to play and have fun but local businesses and organizations are so much more to us. Throughout the school year, the Southern students and staff have called upon the community to help us in many ways. Without the support of the community, we could not have had the many academic, athletic, and student life activities that are an integral part of high school. Thank you Garrett County community for your support!

Community



Kristen,

You will always be our little pumpkin. We are so proud of you and love you very much.

-Mom and Dad

Kristen Gatto

Kayla M. Petrella

You have become a beautiful and bright young lady. We are so proud of you and love you so much!

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Jessica

Ozge Yuzgec

Ozge,

We hope you enjoyed your time at SGHS and in Garrett County. It was a pleasure having you in our home. You have a bright future ahead of you. Good luck in all you do.

-Richard, Angie, Bethany and Vicki

Sarah Beth Frederick

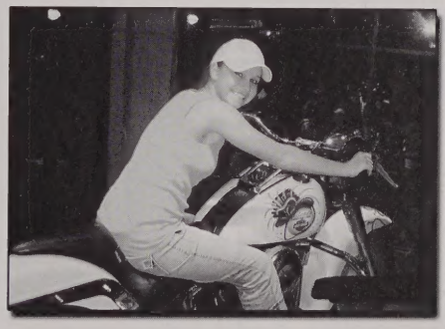
Sarah,

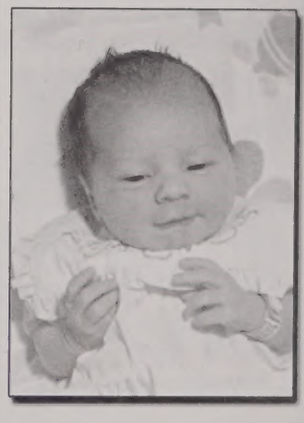
You have been a dear and loving daughter to our family. We are so proud of your accomplishments and your plans for the future.

All our love,

Mommy, Dad, and Laura

Mariah Sines





Mariah,

We can't believe you are graduating. We love you Mariah! You make us so proud!

Love,

Dad, Mom,

Christopher and Jeremiah

Brittany Nicole Harvey

Always begin your tomorrows believing and keeping faith in yourself. Celebrate your successes. Live to learn and learn to live. Laugh a little. Love a lot. Remember, your character is your destiny.

With all our love,
Your family

Anthony Green

Anthony,
It's hard to believe you are a senior! What a fine young man you have become. Always remember we will be just a phone call away as you go out into the world to chase your dreams. We know you are going to be a great diesel mechanic! Best of luck.

Love,
Dad, Mom, and Brittany

Scott Livengood

Scott,
We are proud of you and all of your accomplishments. Thanks for making life fun. Remember we love you more than you will ever know.

Love,
Joe, Mom, and Lindsey

Tiffany Matthews

Tiffany,
CONGRATULATIONS! It's hard to believe your senior year is here, but we knew you'd make everyone proud of you. We wish you nothing but success and best wishes as you venture out on your own. You deserve all good things life has to offer.

Love,
Your family

Marissa A. Aronhalt

Marissa,
We are so very proud of who you have become. It has been such a hard road. No one could be more proud of their daughter, as we are of you. Thank you for your responsibility, being there, and turning out to be one very respected daughter. You are awesome and we are so very proud of you. Congrats! We will love you always.

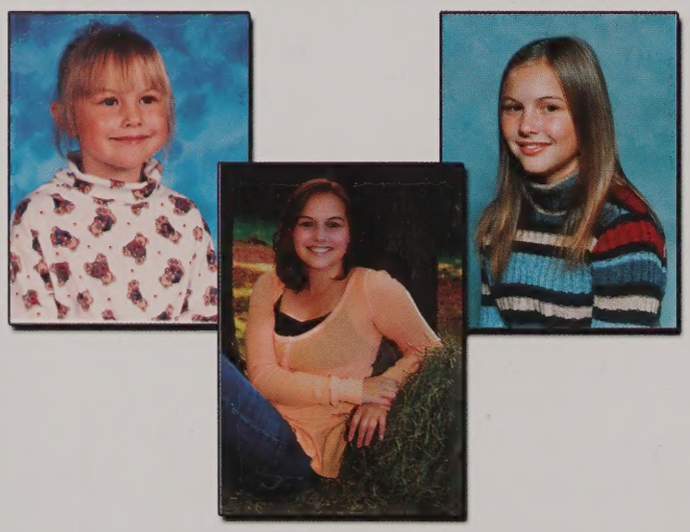
-Mom and Dad

Trista A. Aronhalt

Trista,
Wow! You did it! Your path has had many obstacles, but you overcame each one. You are one of the most strongest, determined people we will ever know. You keep your head high, remember, nothing is out of your reach. We are so very proud of you. Congrats! We will love you always.

- Mom and Dad

Jessica Warnick



From kindergarten to middle school and now graduation--where have the years gone? We are so proud of you and your accomplishments. Keep up the good work in your future. May God bless you in whatever path you choose.

We Love You.
Daddy, Momma, Matthew
Grandma and Jill

Devin Callis

Reflecting back, we are amazed how fast time goes by. God blessed us with you just yesterday it seems. We watched you learn to crawl, walk, talk, ride a bike, leave for your first day of school, learn to drive, go on your first date, speed off to the fire department to fight a fire, and now graduate. All this too seems just like yesterday. You have become a very funny, sensitive,compassionate, strong, loyal, caring, handsome young man. We are sad and excited at the same time. Sad time went so fast and excited about your future. Excited to see what decisions you make and what direction your life will take. We are anxious to see how you choose to use your abilities to build a career and life for yourself. We hope you find all things in life that bring you happiness. You are capable of anything you set your mind to. Stay on God's path and all will be possible. We love you and will always be waiting for you wherever you may need us. You have been a joy every day of your life.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Our beautiful baby girl...
From the time you were born till now...
Our beautiful young lady...
As beautiful on the inside
As you are on the outside.
You brighten our days
With your tender ways.
So beautiful, loving, and kind
We pray peace happiness,
And success you will find.
May God always keep His hand upon you,
And may blessings follow in all you do.
We love you!
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Dustin

Mariah N. Sines

Mariah,

Wow! The first granddaughter graduating! Where have the years gone? Do you know how proud we are of you and the young lady you have become? From the time you were small, your laughter has brought a smile to our face. That hasn't changed! Good luck at Garrett and remember to hold onto God because He will help you choose the right path to follow.

We love you!
Me-Maw Sue and Pap-Paw Mike Fulmer

Kristen Elaine Gatto

K is for kind, generous, and fair.
R is for radiant beauty without compare.
I is for intelligent, just so smart.
S is for selfless, a thoughtful heart.
T is for treasure, a heart of gold.
E is for expressive, a merry soul.
N is for nature's sweet gift from above.
Kristen, so precious and loved.

Laura Kaitlyn Grabosky

Trust your instincts. Never let possessions "own" you. Nurture your friendships, believe in yourself, be grateful and treat others the way you want to be treated. And ALWAYS remember, no matter what, you will always be loved.

Love,
Mom and Dad

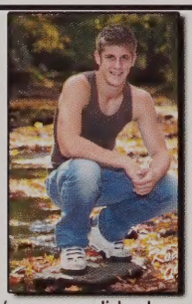
Love always,
Mom and Dad

Cody Starkey

Cody,
I'm very proud of the person you have grown up to be, and extremely honored to have you as my son. Always be the best person you can be in life. Work hard, be kind to others and never lose your sense of humor. I love you and wish you the best of luck in all your future plans and dreams. Congratulations! Good luck at Potomac State.

Love,
Mom

Kody Ryan Lewis



Congratulations on your graduation. We are so proud of all you've accomplished. You've set goals for yourself and one by one have followed them through. Best of luck in the future becoming all you want to be.

Love,
Dad, Mom and Dusty

Cap and gown, books are done.
Look out world, here you come!
Congratulations on a job well done.

Love you,
Aunt Laura

Samantha Gibson

You lit up the sky
On the Fourth of July
And stole our hearts
With a bang and a cry.

A billboard announced
That you were here
And you made it known
With a song in our ear.

You've filled our hearts
With great joy and pride
Each day we thank God
For the gift of your life.

A new life is beginning
And will take a new turn
With faith you will venture
Experience and learn.

You are so beautiful
Loving and kind
And it is our sincere hope
That all your dreams you will find.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Nicole, and Joe

Robert Biser

Rob,
Here you are, graduating from high school-how can that be? It seems like you went from tricycles to Power Wheels to GMC Trucks in a week. Time went by so fast and we enjoyed every minute of it (for the most part.) We are so proud of the young man you have become and we are here for you always. Congratulations!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Missy Rhodes

Missy,
You did it. We are so proud of you. It seems like yesterday you were getting on the bus for the first time. Now you are off to Potomac State in August. Where did all the time go? We love you. You will always be my pooh bear. May all your dreams come true.

Love you more,
Mom and Dad

Alysha Friend

From a sweet little girl
to such a beautiful young lady.
I am so proud of you.
I love you.
-Mom

Brittany Morgan

Britt,
As you begin this new chapter in your life, always remember we are so proud of you and love you very much. Follow your dreams and don't stop till you get there! Your sister is looking down on you and is so very proud of you!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Jennifer Leigh Donham

Feefer,
We can't believe you are graduating already!
"Congrats" and good luck at Shenandoah University.
We know you'll do great!

Jacquelyn and Christopher Noble

Jackie and Christopher,
Congratulations to both of you. You have always made us proud. We hope all your future plans and dreams come true.

We love you,
Dad, Mom, and Alysha

Royce Warnick

Royce,
It's clear you could have been an international swim-suit model, Olympic swimmer, or both. We're glad you decided to put that incredible physique to local use going to Southern, playing soccer, and doing "normal" stuff. The depth of our pride for your dreams, your accomplishments, and most of all, the content of your heart, goes far beyond "normal." We predict warm, sunny days and clear nights for your years to come knowing that your character and faith will see you through any storms that crop up.

God bless you and we love you,
Mom, Dad, Leah, and Rachel

Adam Fitzwater

It's hard to believe that your graduation day has arrived! It seems like yesterday that you entered pre-school. You've grown into an intelligent, fun-loving young man. You make us very proud. And, we look foward to welcoming the newest Bobcat to the OU clan!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Paige and Megan

U.S. AIR FORCE

Julie Bittinger

Julie,
Aim high!
Reach for the stars and follow your dreams!
Always remember we love you!
God Bless!
Love,
Your Family

Samantha Cummings

Samantha,
I have watched you grow from my little girl into a young lady. I am proud of you. YOU DID IT! In spite of all you had against you, and all the obstacles that you had to overcome, you made me proud.

Love,
Mom and your family

Ryan Troublefield

Ryan--
Keep on learning, Ryan, though your graduation's done; Your whole life's an education that has only just begun. Your diploma is the first big step, for knowledge is the special key to winning what you want in life and being who you want to be. If you'll always be a student, you'll find the secrets to success and travel on the golden road to good fortune, peace and happiness.

There is no way to express just how loved you are. It is hard to believe it has been 18 years since we first heard your deep, raspy cry. Everyone enjoys that big smile of yours that continues to brighten our world. Willful and determined, you march to your own beat. Continue to stick up for your convictions and you will travel far.

No matter where life leads you, we will always be here for you!

Love from all your family!

Shayna,
It's hard to believe that you are already graduating from high school! You have grown to be a beautiful and talented young lady that we are so proud of. Thank you for being such a wonderful daughter and friend. Know that we are always here to love and support you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

These past four years have been full of happy and sad times and memories. From the first day of school to the day Jostens came with graduation information we have been through a lot! Throughout the years many people have helped and supported me. Without those people, high school would have not been as great as it was. Thank you to Mr. Oxford for putting up with me as a teacher's aide. Mrs. Wilson, thanks for being an awesome accounting teacher and helping me with all my journal confusion. Ms. Zumpano, you are one of the the greatest teachers and people in the world. You put up with six yearbook classes and all of my emotional break downs and other problems. Thanks! To my yearbook staff, you all are great! A special thank you to Kristen Gatto and Jessica Warnick for helping with all the little things I needed help with throughout the year. Thank you Matt Hanlin for without you we would still be working on the senior connection. Vivian, you were the best editor to work with and I enjoyed every moment. Jackie, you are such a sweetheart even though I don't "talk to you-" ha ha. You will be a great editor! To underclassmen, I hope your years left at Southern will be the best years of your lives. Live every moment to the fullest because these years go by fast! To the Class of 2009, good luck and may all your dreams and goals come true. Go Class of 2009!!

Staci Fitzwater, Editor

Dear Southern,

Whew, it has been an exciting, tiring, and challenging four years. The journey has been full of tears, fears, and cheers but we gained wisdom with every memory created To my senior class, follow your dreams and good luck in everything you do. I want to thank the yearbook staff for putting up with my crazy antics! Emily Thomas, your cookies are amazing. Jackie Fries, a.k.a. Ms. Popular, your amazing and going to make a great editor next year. Staci, I love you but all you get is one sentence. Jessica Warnick, Bethany Stevens, and Jackie Fries, thanks for getting in trouble everyday with me, yearbook would not have been the same without you guys to take part of the blame. ha ha =). Zump thanks for everything especially the memories---IBS, Mrs. Nice, and W. M. Drunning. ha ha.

Class of '09! Editor Vivian K. Geroski

So far our experiences at Southern Garrett High School have been ones that we will remember forever, and I am looking forward to adding to the list of memories. Though it may sound cliché, the opportunities presented to us in high school are ones that cannot be matched. We have been able to take advantage of participating in sports, attending school plays, dances, and sporting events. Even with the endless projects, research papers, and nights spent doing homework, high school gave us a chance to have fun and learn a lot about ourselves. High school experiences are hard to forget, but having a yearbook makes it even harder. By being part of the yearbook staff I have been able provide students not only with a book full of underclassmen and senior portraits, but a book that captures many memories. It has been stressful at times, but worth while working on the yearbook. As a senior and a part of the class of 2010 I look forward to capturing many more memories next year. We will miss all of the seniors and we wish them the best of luck. To all underclassmen: lets make sure we make 2010 a year we will never forget.

Jacqueline Fries, Underclassmen Editor

Congratulations 2008-2009 yearbook staff. Again, you have created a great book of memories for the students and staff at Southern! Thank you for your hard work! Thank you to Staci and Vivian--you are great editors and I will miss you! For those staff members graduating or moving on next year--good luck and may your life be filled with happiness and success! For those who want to return to the Highlander staff--I look forward to working with you and making another book of memories, highlights and fun!

"inspiRED" was published for the students of Southern Garrett High School at 345 Oakland Drive, Oakland, MD 21550

Theme: "inspiRED" was selected by the Yearbook staff at the 2008 summer workshop.

Cover: Designed by the Fall Yearbook staff and created using Adobe Photoshop 7.0. The cover is a custom embossed cover with black material. There is white silkscreen applied along with red foil. It is a school design.

Endsheets: Designed and created by Desktop Publishing Amy Bittinger using Adobe Photoshop 7.0. The endsheet is black litho ink printed on Cottonwood Contempore stock.

Portraits: Senior portraits were taken by LifeTouch Studios and underclassmen portraits were taken by Strawbridge Studios.

Equipment and Software: "inspiRED" was created using Josten's online program Yearbook Avenue. Adobe Photoshop 7.0 was used to create the cover, endsheets and to edit photographs. Candid pictures were taken by a Kodak EasyShare DX 7590 and Canon Rebel XTiEOS Digital Camera.

Special Thank Yous: A very special thank you to students, parents, professional photographers, and teachers for providing the yearbook staff with many pictures.

Additional Thank Yous: Thank you to the Southern High School administration, faculty and staff for your patience and support. Thank you to Fred Reeping and Val Mease at Josten's for helping us throughout the year. Thank you to the students of Southern High School for being a great group of students to photograph.

Publishing: 500 copies of the 2009 Highlander yearbook were printed by Jostens Publishing Company of State College, PA. Pages were printed on 100# glossy paper. Of the 169 pages, 32 pages were printed in color. Trim size is 9x12.

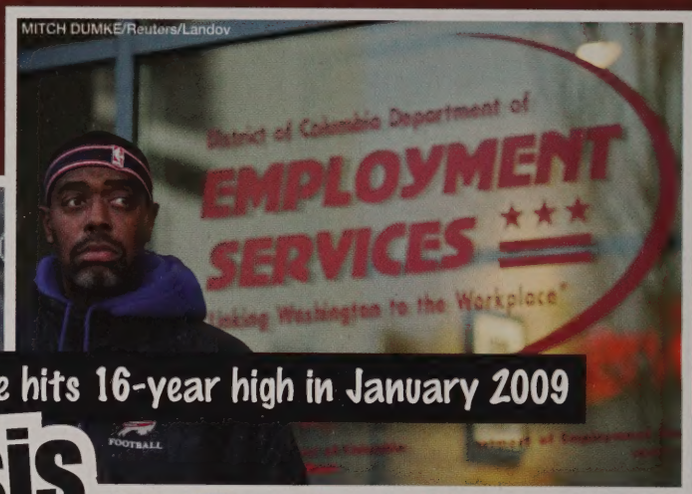
$ Economic Crisis

World News

Stocks plummet as years of excess in the U.S. housing market and lax supervision of financial institutions contribute to the greatest economic crisis since the Great Depression.



Unemployment rate hits 16-year high in January 2009

With buying power declining in the consumer marketplace, companies nationwide are forced to lay off workers. The national unemployment rate hits 7.2 percent in December and is rising steadily. The hardest hit states are Michigan, Rhode Island, California and South Carolina.
